David,

As you know, ORS and the Applicants in the above-referenced matters have been working together to propose a consent procedural schedule for the Commission's consideration. On April 28, 2022, the Commission issued Order No. 2022-271 advising that, while the parties consented to holding the substantive hearing in this matter on July 18, the Commission needs to explore alternatives to that date due to a scheduling conflict. Accordingly, the Commission directed the parties to discuss with the Hearing Officer an alternative procedural schedule for filing testimony and exhibits and to advise if beginning the hearing at a different date and time is agreeable.

After discussing this matter, ORS and the Applicants have agreed to the following proposed testimony and hearing schedule:

Convene the hearing to satisfy statutory requirements – May 12, 2022

ORS and Other Parties Testimony due – June 15, 2022

Applicant Rebuttal Testimony due – June 29, 2022

ORS Surrebuttal Testimony due – July 13, 2022

Full witness hearing – On a date suitable to the Commission to begin between August 23 and August 30, 2022.

For clarity, this proposal would maintain the currently agreed upon testimony dates and would provide for the substantive hearing to begin sometime between August 23 through 30, 2022, on a date convenient to the Commission.

I would appreciate it if any of the statutory parties would advise of any objection to the proposed consent schedule.

Otherwise, please let us know if the Commission has any concern with these dates and if a date sometime between August 23 through 30 to commence the hearing in this matter is acceptable to the Commission.

Thank you.

Ben Mustian
